AD SPEND WISDOM

Distilled insights from millions in advertising investments

This collection of frameworks alone is worth more than the course price. What you hold in your hands is the distilled wisdom of millions in ad spend, billions of impressions, and decades of combined marketing expertise. This is not theory—this is the exact blueprint used by brands that dominate their markets.

FRAMEWORK 1: THE CUSTOMER AVATAR BLUEPRINT

Purpose: Create a detailed customer avatar that informs every marketing decision. Understanding your customer at a molecular level is the foundation of all successful marketing campaigns.

CUSTOMER AVATAR BLUEPRINT: PAIN POINTS & OUTCOMES

PAIN POINTS

What keeps them up at night?

What frustrates them daily?

What problem are they desperately trying to solve?

What have they already tried that didn't work?

DESIRED OUTCOMES

What transformation are they seeking?

What does success look like for them?

How will their life be different after solving this problem?

FRAMEWORK 2: THE CONTENT STRATEGY TEMPLATE

Purpose: Plan and execute scroll-stopping content systematically. In the attention economy, you have 3 seconds to capture interest or lose forever. This framework ensures every piece of content is engineered for maximum impact.

FRAMEWORK 3: THE PLATFORM STRATEGY

WORKSHEET

Purpose: Choose your primary platform and commit to mastery. The biggest mistake marketers make is spreading themselves too thin. Dominate one platform before expanding to others. This framework helps you identify where your avatar lives and how to own that space.

PLATFORM ANALYSIS

Platform: _____

Why this platform?

Where does your avatar spend time? _____

What content format do they prefer? _____

FRAMEWORK 5: THE COPYWRITING TEMPLATE

(PAS FORMULA)

Purpose: Write sales copy that converts. The PAS formula (Problem-Agitate-Solution) is the most powerful copywriting framework ever created. It taps into human psychology to create desire and drive action. Master this, and you'll never struggle with conversions again.

_____ Make them feel it: _____

Agitate: What is the cost of inaction?

_____ Paint the worst-case scenario: _____

Solution: Introduce your offer as the answer:

_____ Describe the transformation: _____

_____ Show them the after-state: _____

FRAMEWORK 6: THE PAID AD CAMPAIGN PLANNER

Purpose: Plan profitable ad campaigns before spending a dollar. Most marketers waste thousands on ads because they launch without a strategy. This framework ensures every campaign is engineered for profitability from day one. Plan the work, then work the plan.

CAMPAIGN SETUP

Campaign: _____

Campaign Goal: _____

Budget: $_____/day

Target: <5%

Month: _____ | These metrics tell you everything you need to know about the health of your marketing system. Track them weekly, optimize relentlessly, and watch your business scale predictably.

FRAMEWORK 10: THE A/B TEST TRACKER

Purpose: Systematically test and optimize campaigns. The difference between good marketers and great marketers is testing. Small improvements compound into massive results. This framework ensures you're constantly optimizing for maximum performance.

TEST: _____

Hypothesis: _____

Variable Being Tested: _____

Control (A): _____ | Variant (B): _____
