

Leadership & Influence: Progress Tracker

The ultimate course workbook that transforms ambitious managers into transformational leaders. This progress tracker is your accountability system—the bridge between learning leadership principles and becoming a leader who drives results.

Your 90-Day Leadership Transformation Dashboard

Leadership without measurement is hope without strategy. This progress tracker transforms good intentions into measurable growth. It turns leadership theory into leadership practice. It converts effort into evidence.

Elite leaders don't just know what to do—they track what they do, analyze the data, and optimize relentlessly. This tracker is your accountability system. Use it daily, review it weekly, and watch your leadership impact compound month over month.

The discipline of tracking is the discipline of excellence.

Why Tracking Changes Everything

Data-Driven Leadership

Transform subjective feelings into objective metrics that reveal your true leadership impact.

Accelerated Growth

Identify patterns in your success and failures to optimize your leadership approach continuously.

Accountability System

Create concrete evidence of your development journey and commitment to excellence.

Professional leaders understand that what gets measured gets managed. Without tracking, you're flying blind—making decisions based on intuition rather than intelligence. This dashboard gives you the strategic advantage of knowing exactly where you stand, where you're going, and how quickly you're progressing toward transformational leadership.

How to Use This Tracker

01

Daily Logging

Log your leadership activities at the end of each workday (5 minutes). Consistency is the foundation of compounding excellence.

02

Weekly Review

Review your metrics every Friday and plan next week (15 minutes). Identify patterns and adjust tactics.

03

Monthly Analysis

Analyze trends, celebrate wins, and adjust strategy (30 minutes). This is where insights become breakthroughs.

04

Quarterly Assessment

Assess overall progress and set new goals (1 hour). Transform data into strategic direction.

Commit to this process for 90 days and you'll never go back to guessing about your leadership effectiveness. This system has been refined by Fortune 500 leadership development programs and proven to accelerate career advancement for ambitious managers worldwide.

Daily Leadership Activity Tracker

Track your core leadership activities every single day. Consistency compounds. Small daily actions create massive leadership impact over time.

One-on-Ones Completed

Track meaningful individual conversations that build trust and alignment.

Feedback Conversations

Count both positive reinforcement and developmental coaching moments.

Strategic Decisions Made

Log high-impact choices that drive team direction and outcomes.

Vision Communicated

Record instances of reinforcing purpose, direction, and meaning.

Weekly Activity Template

Use this framework to log your daily leadership actions throughout the week. The power is in the pattern—track consistently to reveal your leadership rhythm.

Trust Score Tracker

Trust is the currency of leadership. Track your Trust Equation monthly to quantify and optimize the foundation of your influence.

 Trust Equation Formula: (Credibility + Reliability + Intimacy) ÷ Self-Orientation = Trust Score

Component (1-10)	Month 1	Month 2	Month 3
Credibility	-----	-----	-----
Reliability	-----	-----	-----
Intimacy	-----	-----	-----
Self-Orientation	-----	-----	-----
Trust Score	-----	-----	-----

90-Day Trust Improvement: -----

A rising trust score predicts rising influence. Focus on increasing credibility, reliability, and intimacy while decreasing self-oriented behavior. The math doesn't lie—track it and transform it.

Team Member Development Tracker

Great leaders build great people. Track each team member's growth quarterly to ensure you're developing your talent pipeline and creating promotion-ready successors.

Your Leadership Commitment Contract

"I commit to using this tracker for the next 90 days. I understand that tracking is not optional—it's the difference between hoping to be a better leader and engineering leadership excellence."

I will log my activities daily, review my metrics weekly, and analyze my performance monthly. I will be honest with myself about what's working and what's not. I will celebrate my wins and learn from my failures. I will use data to drive decisions, not emotions or assumptions.

Why This Matters to Me

Who I'm Becoming as a Leader

This tracker is your competitive advantage. While others are guessing about their leadership effectiveness, you have data. While others are repeating the same mistakes, you're learning and improving. While others are hoping to be better leaders, you're engineering leadership excellence.

Use this tracker religiously for 90 days. The insights you gain will be worth more than the entire course. The habits you build will compound for the rest of your career. The leader you become will inspire movements.

Track. Analyze. Optimize. Lead.
